Past Mistakes

People say we should learn from the past,
But how can we learn from the past
When we live life in the fast lane
And keep doing everything the same?

We keep making the same mistakes
And there aren't any retakes.
We keep going in circles
Hoping for a miracle.

Life is tick-tick-ticking by,
And we don't realize how time flies.
Some say live life to the fullest,
But some take that as to be foolish.
